Beau’s Burgers: A Love Letter to the Coast 🍔

I started Beau’s because I was fed up with mass-produced, frozen mystery patties. I wanted something better for the Central Coast, so I took the leap and built the burger biz I always wanted to eat at.
Beau’s wasn’t born from a boardroom business plan; it was born from a love for my community and a desire to keep things real. We’re about fresh ingredients, supporting local, and making sure every person who walks through the door feels seen, welcome, and "fed" in every sense of the word.
One of our regulars recently said their first bite nearly made them cry—that’s the kind of heart we put into every order.

What Matters Here:

Fresh, Quality Food: No fillers, no mysteries.
Community First: Supporting local jobs and ingredients.
Real Heart: A welcoming space for everyone.
Stay in the loop: Follow us @beaus.cc for specials and new menu drops!
